Department Reports

Clerk-Phyllis Baranski read a thank you note from a family assisted by the Elkton Police Dept. and Elkton Ambulance.

Ambulance-Coordinator Beth Swartzendruber-February had 19 runs. Scheurer Hospital hosted an EMT informational meeting last night. Classes begin in April. Beth stated she has more information for anyone interested in the EMT class.

Police-Chief Scott Jobes: Scott would like to attend the annual Chief's Conference June 23rd-25th. The cost is $290 for early registration. Motion Dan Armbruster, second Jeff Zarnke to send Chief Jobes to Conference June 23rd-25th. Discussion. Motion carried. Chief Jobes stated he has been busy and is only 20 complaints behind last year when there were two officers.

Chief Jobs has three part time officers he would like hired. They are Nate Flores, Adam Csanyi, and Aaron Dubs. The background check should only take about a week.

DPW-Superintendent Lonnie Schulz: The Work Crew was here last week to paint, wax floors, etc. Spicer Group met last week to give an update on the S.A.W. Grant. A rate study is being done in conjunction with the grant and the rate tables should be simplified once completed. Inspections of the Lagoon and Lift Station will be done this spring or summer.

Committee Reports- Agnes Kosinski gave an update on the Lions Parks & Rec bingo and Lions Club open gym. Both take place at the Huron Youth Center.
